E. R. MESSAGE

Arrival of summer hasn't slowed activity at your Lodge! We initiated seven new members; planned, executed, and received great publicity on our Flag Day Ceremony; carried out a fun-filled Game Show Night and raised mortgage reduction money, kicked off a pinball machine raffle; raised nearly $1,000 for Crippled Children from our Yard Sale (Thanks esp. to Nita Blake, Patsy Roberts, & Judy Tweedy); hosted a South District Elks Mtg. 80 in attendance; and have signed up some 46 individuals for the Alaskan Cruise, with more to register. Wow! My personal thanks to all Elks who helped accomplish all these things.

Golfers, please note info, in this issue, regarding the 9th

Annual Scramble, Aug. 21. We need at least 2 teams to do our part in supporting the South District. (We have returned to a one-event, Prime Rib Dinner outing, as per popular demand, and expect another great event.) Hole sponsors will also be appreciated—please contact me if you would be willing to do so.

Finally, don't forget those Pinball Raffle Tickets, and to donate items for the Summer basket — all proceeds to help chip away at our Mortgage reduction—a theme we hope to emphasize, in that payment on principal is preferable, above and beyond our monthly interest obligations. Thanks, in advance, all of you super members of #572!

Merle Evans, E. R.
