E. R. MESSAGE

As this message is being written, I am pleased to report that an appointed Lodge Pin Committee has just finished its work and will have a proposed design ready for approval at the August 15 Lodge Meeting. Each year, we have numerous requests, by mail and in person, from Elks around the state and country, who desire a Lodge Pin from #572. It's long past due that we have one — and it will now become a reality. You will hear more on this subject in the near future, including how to obtain this unique #572 emblem!

Speaking of things past due — the Lodge has not appeared in the Apple Festival Parade in some time, but that will again change this September! Thanks to Chris Nolen, who has volunteered to Chair the preparation of our float entry. It will take some volunteers, so let Chris, myself, Michelle Allard, or Norm Wayman (See his article, this Bulletin) know of your offer to assist. And, just maybe, ELKROY will make his first appearance in Murphysboro ... you won't want to miss him!

The 9th Annual South District Benefit Golf Scramble will be held on Aug. 21 at the Gambit in Vienna. We already have 2-6 person teams entered. Plus 3 hole sponsorships. Thanks in advance, everyone involved, for helping support the Elks' South District. Also, we have South Dist. Raffle tickets at the Lodge, for a Diamond Necklace to be given away at the September State meeting. They are $5 each and proceeds go to IL Elks Crippled Children, credited to Lodge #572. Just ask in the Club Room — we even have pictures of the Necklace!

As you look over the calendar, please pay attention to 2 special events — Karaoke on Friday the 12th, and NASCAR BRISTOL PARTY on Saturday the 27th. As your Lodge has put effort into providing these options, those members who enjoy either item will hopefully make immediate plans to attend and participate.

Finally, remember that the "Summer Basket" resulted from those of you who were kind enough to donate items or money. Now, I hope others will consider buying tickets, as found in this bulletin. This is a way to assist your Lodge in mortgage reduction, as well as have a chance to win a unique prize. I commend all of you for your support of #572!

Merle Evans, E. R.

SUMMER GIFT BASKET RAFFLE TO BENEFIT LODGE MORTGAGE REDUCTION

This Basket is filled with a variety of goodies which were donated by members, in July. (Everything from wine to gift certificates!) It is on display at the Lodge, should you want to take a peek. If you want to buy a chance and help out your Lodge, tickets are included in this newsletter and can be returned to the Lodge in person, or mailed to P. O. Box 787. Drawing is Labor Day, September 5th.

LEADING KNIGHT MESSAGE

CRUISE UP-DATE:

Elk members & friends! It's not if, it's when we will run out of cabins available on the Murphysboro Elks Alaskan Adventure! As of July 25th we have 54 people who are going, plus 12 from the Crestwood, MO., Elks Lodge!! Prices will increase on all accommodations once all original allocations are gone. Call me for the latest information, and I will get back to you A.S.A.P. (Note: Information is coming regarding the Elks Lodges in the various ports of call during the cruise!!)

VOLUNTEERS:

We need to vastly expand our list of members who can help with our Lodge functions. Too few do too much and we always need help. Get on our list as to when you could be available to help and as to what you would like to be a part of. Contact me to become a member of our volunteer team! It's fun and rewarding to be on our volunteer staff.

Thanks, Norm Wayman
