E. R. MESSAGE

Once again, the "Fall Scramble" has arrived, with football, festivals, feasts, and fun events in all directions. For those of you who are geographically near #572, Apple Festival weekend is close at hand. Yes, #572 will have a float this year, and yes, ELK-ROY will be on the scene! Our parade entry will emphasize some six themes of the many good works of our Lodge, and of all Elks. Also, during the parade and at the Elk's Drug Awareness Trailer, we will hand out flyers which hi-lite these themes, and encourage individuals to look into possible Elk membership. We are very pleased that the Lodge has progressed to the point where we can put forth a positive presence and message during this important Murphysboro event! Look for Your Lodge's appearance, and take pride in being a member of an active organization in your community.

Speaking of "active", our Activities Committee is planning an "Elks Fun Day" (probably early November) to replace the yearly picnic. We believe a new format is needed, and feel members will be interested to see what all will be offered - all in one day/evening, on Lodge property. Details are forth coming in the next newsletter!

I want to personally thank all Elks who purchased and/or sold raffle tickets for the "Game Shows" pinball machine, donated by Jim Ferguson. (The winner was Joan Nichols, of Murphysboro.) Building loan principal was reduced by $851 as a result of this effort. The current "Summer Basket" raffle is also going well, and we will draw the winner on Sept. 5.

Supporting our Elks South District is important, and I am proud of #572's involvement in the recent benefit golf scramble at the Gambit in Vienna. We had two full teams of 6, plus 1/2 of another, and did quite well in the competition! Thanks to the Murphysboro American Legion for sponsoring one of these teams, and to PLP Battery and B & B Harris Mgt., L.L.C., for hole sponsorships. Great job, everyone!

Merle Evans, E. R.

ELKS PINS

At this writing, we have ordered 500 Lodge pins. It is a white state of IL with a red apple that surrounds the Elks Logo. Below is a blue ribbon with #572 on it. Thanks to Steve Kimbro, there is a red star to pinpoint our location. In about six weeks we will have them! Prince will be $5.25.

COMMENTS FROM LEADING KNIGHT

SOCCKER SHOOTOUT – HELP NEEDED:

WHEN: SEPT. 10, @ 8:30 ~ 8:45 A.M.

WHERE: C'DALE SUPER BLOCK

WHAT: Much like the Elk's Hoop Shoot, boys, & girls attempt to kick a soccer ball into a net. Need help to keep score, retrieve balls, organize kids, etc. Length of time: approx 9:00 a.m. ~ 1:00 p.m. Six people are needed.

CRUISE NEWS: We only have two inside cabins left at original price! Port holes (ocean view) were sold out quickly and are now $150.00 more for each occupant. Balconies are $50.00 more than originally indicated. However, these are still great prices. Compared on-line, if you want, but for doorknob to doorknob, it can't be beat! Questions? That's me: 684-4541 (Elks); 684-2449 (Home).

ALASKA: Skagway Elks Lodge E. R. Rob Murphy informed via e-mail that they will do something special for us. Communication is ongoing.

SKAGWAY: Is an old mining town of about 400 or so. They have a beautiful tour on a train that goes up, up, and up the mountains to the old gold mines. It's a little pricey at about $100, or there are bus tours at about half the price. They also have a saloon called "The Red Onion" with a lot of history. According to our good ELKS, Dave & Beverly Conrad, it's a "can't miss" feature of Skagway.

KETCHIKAN: It has a history rich with Indian traditions. Tours take you to old villages for tribal dancing and lot of totum poles and other Indian artifacts. I received an e-mail from a Nellie, the secretary of the Ketchikan Lodge. One of their member's wives owns a touring business that offers a personal touch that the commercial ones don't do. The lady will give Elk's Cruisers five dollars off of the $30 tour. She has also said she will take us to Elks that open at 5:00 p.m., and get us back to the ship for an 8:00 p.m. departure. Other features of Ketchikan – Tongass Forest Service Museum and a local Seaman's Bar. More info. Later, while wondering if Nellie is a gal, a guy, or a horse. Just kidding!
