E. R. MESSAGE

As you can readily see within this Newsletter, Lodge #572 has worked hard to participate in community service, via involvement in the Apple Festival. Coordinating the appearance of Elroy the Elk, our 2nd place float for organizations, and the Drug Awareness Trailer required the efforts of many Elk Volunteers and officers. We hope that we were able to "Put Our Best Foot Forward" and carry a positive message about the Elks organization to many people who might not have known. Thanks everyone!

Several of your officers will be traveling to Springfield for the IEA

Fall Mtg., at about the time you receive this newsletter. We hope to represent #572 well and to bring back some helpful hints and ideas for our Lodge. Speaking of ideas — our Summer Gift Basket Raffle earned $169.00 for Lodge Mortgage Reduction. Every dollar counts! (Please consider our upcoming digital camera raffle as another option to help out — and maybe win yourself a fine piece of equipment.)

While thanking 464 of you who are current in their dues for 2005-2006, I want to encourage those 62 who are not, to take care of this matter A.S.A.P. Please be a part of moving #572 forward.

Please notice that Karaoke appears on Oct. 14. We presently plan to make this a regular, on the 2nd Friday of each Fall/Winter month. And, don't overlook the Lodge Hop — it should be a memorable event! We still have some space available on the August 06 Alaskan Cruise, for anyone still thinking about it. As to everything else in this bulletin — thank you for being a good Elk and reading up & keeping up!

Merle Evans, E. R.

ELKS ASKED TO HELP WITH HURRICAN RELIEF FUND!!

Elks of Lodge #572 — both Grand Exalted Ruler, Louis J. Grillo, and IEA President, Paul Ranzani, have called on members, who so desire, to help those affected by the disastrous Hurricane Katrina. As of this date, your Lodge has forwarded $100, and individual donations total another $224. Checks may be made out to HURRICANE KATRINA ELKS DISASTER RELIEF FUND, and should be sent to: B.P.O.E. Emergency Charity Fund, 2750 North Lakeview Ave., Chicago, IL 60614-1889. This option is both a great way to help our fellow citizens, while helping prove once again, that ELKS CARE - ELKS SHARE!

SOCCER SHOOT RESULTS

Representing Murphysboro #572 at the State Soccer Shoot in Springfield on September 24 was Robert Schurz. Robert was one of 15 winners from the Carbondale/Murphysboro local shoot who then advanced to District in West Frankfort on Sept. 17. Thanks to Dave Ullman and the Carbondale Lodge for spearheading the local shoot, including hosting a pizza party and awarding Medallions purchased respectively by both Lodges. John Love, Patty Gillmore and Chris Paul are commended for working the local shoot, which was short of volunteers!

LODGE PIN THANK YOU!

I would like to give a big Elk "At-a-Boy"
to the Lodge Pin committee for coming up with a pin that shows our PRIDE in Murphysboro Elks Lodge #572. A special thank you to Merle Evans, ER; Rupert Borgsmiller, PER; Henry Wassner, PER;
Norm Wayman, Leading Knight; John
Love, Loyal Knight; Mike Miles, Dick Crain, and Holly DeKeyrel! Your hard work and thought will be worn on the lapels of our members for a long time!
Thank you again!

Walter L. Poole, PER, Trustee

(Note - Pins will be arriving in about 3 weeks.)

MAJOR CONTRIBUTION TO LODGE MORTGAGE REDUCTION

The October, 2005 mortgage payment of this Lodge has been paid by a generous donation from member Don Gregory, and wife, Nola. This gift is greatly appreciated! It will allow us to better posture for a larger principal payment, which we are hoping to accomplish in November. And,
Don and Nola's payment will grow in value when interested is figured in over the remaining years of our mortgage!

ELK'S FLOAT WINS

This message was depicted by six major themes, represented by individuals on our 2005 Apple Festival float (see picture). Flyers were handed out along the parade route, emphasizing key elements of how your Lodge contributes to the community: Hoop Shoot; Crippled Children's Program; Scholarships; Veteran Support Programs; Contribution to High School groups and events, and Easter Bunny Program. Thanks to all who helped, including: Patriots Bravo for building space; Chris & Dan Nolen, Bill & Chris Paul, Bob & Michelle Allard, Craig & Anita Harris, Lori Graff, Steve Kimbro, Bob Kirschbaum, Lynn Porter, Mike Miles, John Love, Marsha Butler, Susie Brown, Janet Mandis, B. J. Wyatt & Schwebel Printing, Judy Moore, Specialized Services, Inc. Finally, we enjoyed the appearance of ELROY the Elk (Bill Paul), IL Elks Drug Awareness Mascot, who waved to excited on-lookers from the back of the truck pulling our impressive float. All of our effort was aimed at not only having a fun event, but also educating the community as to how ELKS CARE ~ ELKS SHARE!
